Budgeting for Results

Public Hearings

The Budgeting for Results (BFR) Commission is established under state statute, PA 96-958, to advise the Governor on the prioritization of state program outcomes and goals. In addition, the Commission provides advice on best practices regarding performance budgeting and program performance evaluation. Each year the Commission holds two public hearings, one in Springfield and the other in Chicago. These hearings provide opportunity to learn about the BFR Initiative and share views on this subject with the BFR Commissioners.

Budgeting for Results works towards performance-based budgeting in response to prioritized state program outcomes and goals. Your input and engagement is sincerely requested at an upcoming BFR Commission public hearing.
