Abstract

Ron Whitaker, Education is Key-Community Colleges, EC-A-L-2013-029

Biographical Information Overview of Interview: Ron Whitaker was born in Chicago, Illinois in 1935. He graduated from Joliet Township High School in 1953 and earned an Associates Degree from Joliet Junior College in Business in 1969. Ron was a long time real estate broker in New Lenox, Illinois. Mr. Whitaker has a unique perspective, being a student at Joliet Township High School when it operated the Junior College, then later as a full time/part time student at the college and as a Trustee when the College operated as an independent body. This interview covers those years and covers the evolution of Joliet Junior College from 1965-1970 when several critical issues were being considered, including the school's geographical territory, voter approval of the new school, selection of the new president, the Division of Assets with the High School, and site selection.

Subject Headings/Key Words: Joliet Junior College; 1965 Junior College Act; school referendum; building bonds; Class I/II Status; Joliet Township High School; site selection; culinary arts; name of college; Joliet Junior College Trustees

Note to the Reader: Readers of the oral history memoir should bear in mind that this is a transcript of the spoken word, and that the interviewer, interviewee and editor sought to preserve the informal, conversational style that is inherent in such historical sources. The Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library is not responsible for the factual accuracy of the memoir, nor for the views expressed therein. We leave these for the reader to judge.
