Abstract

Biographical Information & Synopsis: Walter Ade was born in Bruchsal, Germany on October 3, 1931. His father, a civil servant with the German government, moved the family to the Sudeten area of Czechoslovakia after this area was turned over to Germany in 1938. Walter spent his youth there, while his father and older brother both served in the Wehrmacht. (His father was captured by the Russians, and released in October 1955. His brother was also captured by the Russians, but later executed by his captors.) Following the war, the family moved hastily to western Germany. In 1949, Walter emigrated to Springfield, Illinois, where he found work as a tailor. He joined the U.S. Army in January, 1952, and served in Korea from January through December of 1953. Walter served with Company K, 3rd Battalion, 5th Regimental Combat Team, assigned to a machinegun team. His unit served in the Punchbowl area of Korea, and later near Chorwon. From 1956 to 1984 Walter worked full-time for the Illinois Army National Guard. An avid marksman, he received the Distinguished Marksman Badge, coached the ING Biathlon team and also competed in Worldloppet Cross Country ski marathons.

Topics Covered: World War II in Sudetenland; Russian Prisoner of War; Korean War; 5th Regimental Combat Team; Punchbowl; Chorwon, South Korea; Outpost Harry; Illinois Army National Guard; Springfield, Illinois; rifle marksmanship; biathlons; Worldloppet Cross Country Ski marathons; Korean orphanage

Note to the Reader: Readers of the oral history memoir should bear in mind that this is a transcript of the spoken word, and that the interviewer, interviewee and editor sought to preserve the informal, conversational style that is inherent in such historical sources. The Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library is not responsible for the factual accuracy of the memoir, nor for the views expressed therein. We leave these for the reader to judge.
