

Image Caption Form

George Marquis

Part of the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library
Veterans Remember Oral History project

Interview on August 5, 2010
Interview # VR2-A-L-2010-034

	George S. Marquis's official photograph. (This image is considered to be in the public domain.)
	George Marquis (on the right) and a buddy taken in Groton, Connecticut during his training, sometime in 1944. (Narrator's photo.)
	George and several shipmates relax in the Philippine Islands. In the back right is a beer shack. George is kneeling in the front left. (Narrator's photo.).
	George and his mates relax at the Fremantle Submarine Base in Perth, Australia. Marquis is in the front row, second from the right. (Narrator's photo.)

	Seaman First Class (S1c) Robert “Bobby Sox” Faseli, S1c George S. Marquis, Motor Machinist Richard “Ed” Branin, Radarman 3 Hugh “Bud” Trimble and S1c Lawrence J. Regan, shipmates on the USS Bergall (SS-320) show their legs for a gag photo in 1944, while on shore leave at Pearl Harbor before heading into the war zone. (Narrator’s photo.)
	The USS Bergall battle flag
	George Marquis at the time of his interview, August, 2010.