Giannoulas Implements the Skip-the-Line Program at DMVs

- Who: Illinois Secretary of State Alexi Giannoulas
Illinois AARP
Chicago Federation of Labor
Faith-based Coalitions
- What: Secretary Giannoulas will officially launch the implementation of the Skip-the-Line program at Driver and Motor Vehicle Facilities (DMVs) throughout the state. He will be joined by organizations partnering with his office to help raise awareness about the new program.
- Where: 555 W. Monroe St.
Blue Room – 3rd Floor
Chicago, IL 60661
- When: Thursday, August 31, at 10:30 a.m.
- Why: In an effort to improve customer service and eliminate the unpredictability of wait times at DMVs, Secretary of State Alexi Giannoulas will announce the official implementation of the Skip-the-Line program set to begin on Friday, Sept. 1.

The program includes required appointments at the 44 busiest DMV locations, extended hours at all DMVs statewide and expanded online services.

A list of Skip-the-Line appointment facilities will be distributed at the event and is available at ilsos.gov.
