This CPO Notice is effective September 27, 2013. By issuance of this notice, the Chief Procurement Office reminds agencies that notices of award, including renegotiated contracts and change orders, are required to be posted to their agency websites.

The Procurement Code requires notice of each and every contract that is awarded, including renegotiated contracts and change orders, to be issued electronically to the successful responsible bidder or offeror, posted on the agency's website the next business day, and published in the next available subsequent Bulletin. See 30 ILCS 500/15-25(b-5).

If there are any questions regarding this notice, please contact the Chief Procurement Office at (217) 558-2231.
