Are you pregnant, recovering from childbirth, or do you have a medical or common condition related to pregnancy?

If so, you have the right to:

• Ask your employer for a reasonable accommodation for your pregnancy, such as more frequent bathroom breaks, assistance with heavy work, a private space for expressing milk, or time off to recover from your pregnancy.
• Reject an unsolicited accommodation offered by your employer for your pregnancy.
• Continue working during your pregnancy if a reasonable accommodation is available which would allow you to continue performing your job.

Your employer cannot:

• Discriminate against you because of your pregnancy.
• Retaliate against you because you requested a reasonable accommodation.
