

JOHN T. BOMHER

John T. Bomher is Senior Vice President, Health Policy with the Illinois Hospital Association. In that capacity he is responsible for leading IHA's efforts to develop policy positions on behalf of Illinois hospitals. He manages IHA's team responsible for issue analysis, advocacy support and data collection and analysis. Before assuming his current position in June 2005, John served as the Association's Vice President and Associate General Counsel, advising the Association on judicial, legislative and regulatory developments affecting the healthcare industry.

Prior to joining the Illinois Hospital Association in May 1988, John worked in the legal department of the Illinois Department of Public Aid. In that position he managed state and federal litigation involving the Department, advised the Department on policy issues, and represented the Department in the administrative rulemaking process.

Mr. Bomher has also served as an adjunct professor at Benedictine University teaching "Legal Issues in Health Care". He also serves as a member of the Board of Education for Community Unit School District 200 in Wheaton, Illinois, which educates approximately 14,000 students in twenty schools with an annual budget of over $150 million.

John earned his J.D. degree from the University of Illinois College of Law in 1985 and his bachelor's degree (with high distinction) from the University of Illinois in Urbana-Champaign in 1982.

John is a member of the American Health Lawyers Association, the Illinois Association of Healthcare Attorneys and the Illinois State Bar Association.
