Accreditation Level	Description of Accreditation Level
Excellent	NCQA awards its highest status of Excellent to organizations with programs for service and clinical quality that meet or exceed rigorous requirements for consumer protection and quality improvement. HEDIS®/CAHPS® results are in the highest range of national performance.
Commendable	NCQA awards a status of Commendable to organizations with well-established programs for service and clinical quality that meet rigorous requirements for consumer protection and quality improvement. Organizations with this status may not have had their HEDIS/CAHPS results evaluated. If HEDIS/CAHPS results were evaluated, organizations must take further action to achieve higher accreditation status.
Accredited	NCQA awards a status of Accredited to organizations with programs for service and clinical quality that meet basic requirements for consumer protection and quality improvement. Organizations with this status may not have had their HEDIS/CAHPS results evaluated. If HEDIS/CAHPS results were evaluated, organizations must take further action to achieve higher accreditation status.
Provisional	NCQA awards a status of Provisional to organizations with programs for service and clinical quality that meet some, but not all, basic requirements for consumer protection and quality improvement. Organizations awarded this status need to improve their processes as well as clinical and service quality to achieve a higher accreditation status.
Interim	NCQA awards a status of Interim to organizations with basic structure and processes in place to meet expectations for consumer protection and quality improvement. Organizations awarded this status will need to undergo a Full Survey within 18 months to demonstrate they have executed those processes effectively.
Denied	NCQA awards a status of Denied Accreditation to organizations whose programs for service and clinical quality do not meet NCQA requirements.
