

Name: Albert Washington –State Panel

Position: Board Member – Illinois Labor Relations Board - State Panel

Albert Washington began his career in labor relations in Chicago's manufacturing industry over 50 years ago. Throughout that time, he served as an officer and in various other capacities for two major labor organizations, negotiating many collective bargaining agreements and participating in numerous grievance arbitrations. He is a member of the A. Phillip Randolph Institute, and is a member and former executive vice-president of the Coalition of Black Trade Unionists. Since 2008, Mr. Washington has served with distinction on the Illinois Labor Relations Board.