Board Members,

It has recently come to my attention that a developer is looking to construct some type of 'transitional care' facility on North Arlington Heights Road. It seems to me that this 'redevelopment' will be providing a service that already exists in Arlington Heights.

Your task is to determine whether a need exists that demands such a development and I am writing today to inform you that that need is currently being met.

The city 'needs' many other things but another 'transitional care facility' is not one of them.

Thank you.

Dear Mr. Constantino and Board Members,

This letter is in regards to the application for a certificate of need for the Transitional Care Center of Arlington Heights project on North Arlington Heights Road.

I would like to take this opportunity to express my objection to the claim that there is a 'need' for such a facility in Arlington Heights. All signs indicate that we currently have a surplus of beds in the area and therefore such a development would cannibalize other similar service care centers.

While capitalism and competition are healthy factors in a free market, it seems that your task is to determine 'need' and 'need' only. In this case there just isn't any.

Please deny this application.

Sincerely,

R. Eric

Dear Mr. Constantino and Board Members,

As a resident of Arlington Heights I am writing to ask to deny Transitional Care Management its application for a certificate of need.

I question the actual need for this type of facility. I really believe that existing Arlington Heights care facilities like Moorings, Manor Care and Lutheran Home already meet the needs for long term and rehabilitative in Arlington Heights. I have never heard that these facilities are at 100% capacity nor do they lack the proper services to meet our needs.

During these difficult times let's focus on helping our small businesses who are struggling to stay afloat and utilize some of the empty spaces that already exist.

Please do not grant Transitional Care Management a certificate of need based on the fact that no need exists.

Respectfully,
