

The Illinois Hires Heroes Consortium

The Illinois Hires Heroes Consortium (IHHC) is a group of elite Illinois employers who recognize the great value veterans bring to the workplace and operationalize the term "veteran-friendly" by committing to implement veteran recruitment, training and retention practices. Members of the Consortium are Illinois employers who commit to at least three initiatives – one relating to recruitment, one relating to HR training, and one relating to retention and support practices.

The Illinois Department of Veterans' Affairs (IDVA) and the Illinois Department of Employment Security (IDES) will actively assist participants in meeting the simple goals that will lead the employer on the path to recruiting and retaining high-quality veteran candidates. Employers will be publicly recognized by Governor Pat Quinn and will be allowed to use the Illinois Hires Heroes logo to market themselves as veteran-friendly.

Employers can join the Illinois Hires Heroes Consortium by applying at:

www.illinoishiresheroes.com.

Frequently Asked Questions

Recruiting Practices

1. What is Illinois Job Link?

A: Illinois Job Link (IJL) is an Internet-based job search tool that features current job openings and includes both statewide and nationwide job banks. By enrolling in IJL, veterans will be able to navigate job opportunities; may qualify for assistance from IDES's veteran employment representatives (LVERs); and will be included in the main database used to search for qualified veterans as IDES works directly with major employers seeking to hire veterans. Most importantly, it's free to employers and job-seeking veterans. IDES staff is standing by to assist employers in listing their positions directly on IJL. For further information on IJL or assistance in enrolling, please visit: <https://illinoisjoblink.illinois.gov>.

Human Resources Training

1. What is the Illinois Department of Employment Security (IDES)?

A: IDES provides unemployment insurance (UI), employment services and guidance to workers, job seekers, and employers through a statewide network of IDES offices and Illinois workNet centers. The agency combines federally-funded job training programs in Illinois into a "workforce development" system via which individuals can find a job or train for a new career. In addition, IDES statewide network of veteran employment representatives and employment specialists stand by to assist Illinois employers with varying employer services. For further information on IDES, please visit: <http://www.ides.illinois.gov/>.

IDES will provide a customized, in-person presentation, at no cost, to all interested human resource personnel on a monthly basis at a pre-designated location, date, and time. The presentation will communicate the value of hiring military veterans and illustrate best practices in veteran recruitment, training, and retention practices.

4. What is Syracuse University’s Institute for Veterans and Military Families (IVMF)?

A: The mission of Syracuse University’s IVMF is to fully leverage the intellectual, human and social capital of higher education, in service to America's veterans and their families. IVMF develops education and employment-focused programs in collaboration with industry, government, NGOs and the veteran community, to address the primary economic and public policy concerns of our nation's servicemen and women, and their families. For further information on IVMF, please visit: <http://vets.syr.edu>.

To access “The Guide to Leading Policies, Practices & Resources: Supporting the Employment of Veterans and Military Families,” is a collaborative effort of the Institute and more than 30 private sector employers and supporting organizations to delineate best practices, lessons learned and innovations tied to the recruitment, assimilation, retention and advancement of vets in the workforce. It is available as a PDF at <http://vets.syr.edu/pdfs/guidetoleadingpractices.pdf> for download. In addition, IVMF issued a brief, "The Business Case for Hiring a Veteran: Beyond the Clichés," which draws from academic literature to suggest a robust, specific and compelling business case for hiring individuals with military background and experience. It is available at <http://vets.syr.edu/pdfs/The%20Business%20Case%20for%20Hiring%20a%20Veteran%203-6-12.pdf>.

6. What are the Hiring Our Heroes Employer Webinars?

A: Hiring Our Heroes, a program of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce Foundation, was launched in March 2011 as a nationwide initiative to help veterans, transitioning service members, and military spouses find meaningful employment opportunities. Working with the U.S. Chamber of Commerce's vast network of state and local chambers and strategic partners from the public, private, and non-profit sectors, the goal is to create a movement across America in hundreds of communities where veterans and military families return every day.

Hiring Our Heroes Employer Webinars are exceptional, no-cost opportunities for veteran-friendly employers to obtain expert training on best practices for effective recruitment and retention of veterans and military spouses. Three different webinars are offered, all one-hour in length:

- Employer Best Practices Webinars – Insight from experienced trainers on recruiting, hiring, and retaining veterans
- Military 101 Webinars – A recruiter/HR manager's guide to navigating the military infrastructure
- Wounded Veteran Employment Webinars – A comprehensive guide to hiring veterans with disabilities
